The Great System of Actual Business Training Entire and Complete.

In the Commercial Department, Students have the use of National Banks in full and complete order—receiving deposits and issuing money. borrowing and lending, &c., &c. Also, Merchants' Emporiums, Grain Emporiums, Express, Jobbing, Insurance Commissions, Internal Revenue and Custom Offices. We have samples of Dry Goods, samples of Groceries, samples of Grain and Flour—all of which are bought and sold at the market value in New York or Chicago, according to the price of gold.

PENMANSHIP

Is an important part of our course, and the plain, rapid business writing we teach has taken premiums over all others, time and again.

In the Ornamental Course we challenge competition from all sources—in Off-hand Flourishing, Ornamental Lettering, Card Marking, Copying, Ladies' Italian hand writing, German Text, &c., &c.

PREFACE.

To meet an apparent demand, and to give it as wide a circulation as possible, it was thought advisable to issue a cheap edition of my Directory, and this volume is the result. It is in every respect the same as the $2.00 bound volume, excepting that the "Introductory" is omitted, it is printed on thinner paper, and put up in paper instead of muslin covers.

For all practical purposes, as a Directory, it is the same; and the price being much less, it will no doubt be acceptable to a large class of persons to whom a Directory is desirable, but who did not feel able to subscribe and pay for the more expensive edition. It will be sold exclusively by an agent who will canvass the city for that purpose.

M. T. M.

DID YOU EVER LOOK AT IT

IN THIS LIGHT?

That if you cannot spare one-tenth of your income and support your family on nine-tenths of it while living, how will your family get along when deprived of the whole of your income by your death?

Call immediately at

McKelvey's Insurance Rooms,

Fond father, whose family is dependent entirely on your labor for its support, how can you, when you have returned home from your labor and are enjoying yourself with the plays of your happy, laughing children, let that enjoyment be marred by the wretched thought, that by a single day's neglect on your part, those dear ones, now so happy, might soon become the subjects of Charity, or more, suffer daily the severe pangs of hunger which the poorly paid labor of their overworked mother would be unable to satisfy.

View this subject in its true light, but for one moment, and you will call immediately at

McKelvey's Insurance Office,

And provide for the future comfort of your family, and enjoy life thereafter.

(OVER.)

Who can, for a moment, witness the horrors of poverty attendant upon a neglected widow, whose greatest exertions are remunerated only with a miserable pittance, surrounded as she may be with her helpless children, suffering for the necessaries of life, and then reflect that his own family, his own wife and dear ones, are daily exposed to the same sad fate, so long as he lives without providing a certainty against THEIR future want.

Call immediately at

McKelvey's Insurance Rooms,

Opposite the Post Office,

And make provision for the future support and happiness of your family before it is too late.

The Home Mutual Life Ins. Co.

offer inducements to young unmarried men to insure on the Endowment Plan, payable at any given age of the insured while living, or at death, in case it should occur before that given age.

By this system of insurance, small sums, which otherwise might be spent foolishly, can be applied annually, semi-annually, or quarterly to secure a comfortable support or annuity to fall back on in case of misfortune in business or loss of health.

"In the midst of Life we are in Death!"

There is nothing within the knowledge of man more certain than that all must die! Death sooner or later lays his hand upon all that is mortal. Our turn may not be to-day—may not be to-morrow; but who shall say when it may not be? It is a CHRISTIAN duty to provide against such an event as death, no less in this world than in the world to come; for the Divine Teacher tells us that he who neglects to provide for the comfort of his wife and little ones is guilty of a great crime. Think of this and then lay hold of the means of consumating that duty by calling at the

OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE.

While we think it the duty of all men to provide for the welfare of their families, by means of

LIFE INSURANCE,

there are many cases where it is equally the duty of WOMEN, through insurance, to provide for the care and education of their children.

Let all male or female interested in the subject of Life Insurance, call at the

It is as much a man's duty to provide for the welfare of his family after his death as during his lifetime. No man should neglect this duty. Call on

JOHN M'KELVEY,

AT HIS OFFICE,

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE,

AND SECURE A POLICY IN THE

Home Mutual Life Insurance Company,

AND YOUR DUTY IS DONE.

Who can, for a moment, witness the horrors of poverty attendant upon a neglected widow, whose greatest exertions are remunerated only with a miserable pittance, surrounded as she may be with her helpless children, suffering for the necessaries of life, and then reflect that his own family, his own wife and dear ones, are daily exposed to the same sad fate, so long as he lives without providing a certainty against THEIR future want.

Call immediately at

McKelvey's Insurance Rooms,

OPPOSITE THE POST OFFICE,

And make provision for the future support and happiness of your family before it is too late.

COR. COLUMBUS AVENUE AND MARKET ST.

SANDUSKY, OHIO.

How can you, who desire the welfare of your family, entertain the thought for a single day, that by your death they would be cast upon the cold charity of the world when for so small a sum, applied annually while living, you can provide for the future comfort of your wife and education of your children?
